Donna Armellino, RN, D.N.P., CIC
Vice President
Infection Prevention
North Shore-LIJ Health System
Great Neck, New York

Donna Armellino, RN, DNP, CIC, is vice president of Infection Prevention, with oversight of all infection control programs at the North Shore-LIJ Health System's acute-care facilities and across the continuum. In this role, she works to identify and promote best practices that improve the quality of patient care and safety, as well as minimize occupational hazards associated with the delivery of healthcare.

Donna began her career at North Shore-LIJ as a staff nurse at North Shore University Hospital. She later held several infection control positions at the hospital and also served as head nurse at the Stern Family Center for Rehabilitation, Manhasset. She holds a bachelor's degree from the State University of New York (SUNY) College at Old Westbury, a Master of Public Health Administration from CW Post, Long Island University, and a doctorate from Case Western Reserve University's Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing in Cleveland, OH. She also received certification in infection control/hospital epidemiology from the Certification Board for Infection Control.
