How long will it take to complete the Oro™ 2.0 High Reliability Organizational Assessment?

• It typically takes an organization about one month from start to finish, but with organizational commitment you can complete it within one week.

What is involved in this process?
• The process consists of two parts: 1) establish where you are now, as an organization and 2) planning for your High Reliability Journey